INTRODUCTION

Call to Worship

'I will bless the Lord at all times;
His praise shall continually be in my mouth'

All Out of the darkness came light

And the power of God was revealed
In the running wave and the flowing air
In the quiet earth and the shining stars.

All Out of the dust came life

And the image of God was revealed
In the human frame and the gentle heart
In the warmth of flesh and the depth of soul.

All Out of justice came freedom

And the wisdom of God was revealed
In the need to grow and the power to choose.

All And God looked at creation

And behold it was very good.

All 'I will bless the Lord at all times: His praise shall Continually be in my mouth'

Prayer of Adoration

I will keep on thanking God with constant words of prayer.

All I will glory in the living God. The humble will hear and be glad.

Let us pray.

Living God, our loving parent: you cherish your creation and we praise you.
With our lips, with our lives, in all our diversity, each one made in your image,
we praise you.

Because in Jesus, you came to share our human lives, our sorrow and our joy, we praise you.

Because your Spirit is at work today; encouraging, enabling, surprising us,
we praise you.

Salt of the earth, you give us meaning and purpose and we praise you.

All Amen

Prayer of Confession

Salt is good, but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it?
Giving God, you blessed us with saltiness,

All But we became bland.

You trusted us with your word

All But we did not keep it

You lit a flame in our midst

All But we hid it under formality and smothered it with our fears

God in your mercy, forgive us

(silence)

Forgiving God we believe that you have called us

All To be salt and light

That you offer us time, space and strength

All To begin again

(silence)

Giving and forgiving God

All We thank you

May almighty God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, forgive you your sins and bring you to eternal life. Amen.

Have salt in yourself and be at peace with one another.

All Amen

Readings

Old Testament Reading Jeremiah 15 vs 15-21

O Lord, you know;

remember me and visit me,

and bring down retribution for me on my persecutors.

In your forbearance do not take me away;

know that on your account I suffer insult.

Your words were found, and I ate them,

and your words became to me a joy

and the delight of my heart;

for I am called by your name,

O Lord, God of hosts.

I did not sit in the company of merry-makers,
nor did I rejoice;
under the weight of your hand I sat alone,
for you had filled me with indignation.
Why is my pain unceasing,
my wound incurable,
refusing to be healed?
Truly, you are to me like a deceitful brook,
like waters that fail.
Therefore, thus says the Lord:
If you turn back, I will take you back,
and you shall stand before me.
If you utter what is precious, and not what is worthless,
you shall serve as my mouth.
It is they who will turn to you,
not you who will turn to them.
And I will make you to this people
a fortified wall of bronze;
they will fight against you,
but they shall not prevail over you,
for I am with you
to save you and deliver you,
says the Lord.
I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked,
and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew 16 21-28

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection

From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, 'God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you.' But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.'

The Cross and Self-Denial

Then Jesus told his disciples, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life?

‘For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.’

All Glory to you O Lord

We are all invited to the common table to share in an Agape feast.

All At this table we come as brothers and sisters in the Holy Family of God.

Taste and see that the Lord is good.

All As we share bread, as we drink water, we thank you God for our daily bread.

We thank you for the food which delights and nourishes us and for the companionship that sustains us.

All We thank you too for the living water with which you surprise, enrich and transform our lives.

(We eat bread and drink water)

Thanks be to God for his amazing grace to each of us

All Lord God thank you for this feast in which we have had a foretaste of the Holy Realm. Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth,
As it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.
