Introduction

Opening Prayer

Lord we have heard your call to us, heard you ask to enter our lives, you are our Lord and Saviour, we come before you in worship and praise.

All Lord, we have heard you to call us to be your disciples, learning from you. You are our leader and teacher, we come to listen to your word.

Lord we have heard you call us to serve you lovingly in the world. You are the spirit of light and love, we come to ask for strength to live our lives for you. In Jesus name.

All Amen

Hymn: Everyday God

Prayers of Adoration

Loving God, for making the world to be our home and us in your image to love and serve you, for calling us to be stewards of your creation

All We praise and thank you

Saving God, for coming to live our human life amongst us and to break through the barriers of sin, for calling us to share your forgiving love with all

All We praise and thank you

Empowering God, for filling us with love, joy and peace, with courage and strength, for calling us to serve you, the living God, with boldness

All We praise and thank you

Confession and Absolution

You have given us a world of beauty

All and we have spoiled it

You have given us food for all

All yet so many go hungry

You have given us a world of riches

All and we are unwilling to share

You have given us a world to care for

All but we think only of ourselves

So, Lord, forgive us

All Gracious God, for those times when your heart is saddened by our selfishness; for those times when we have no thought for others, no cares but ours: enable us to see this world anew as a gift from you to be shared and nurtured, and those who live upon it to be cared for and loved. Amen

May Almighty God forgive you, Jesus Christ renew you and the Spirit of God rest upon you to bring you peace.

All Amen

Collect

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal; grant this heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and forever.

All Amen

New Testament Reading

2 Corinthians 8 7-end

Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something — now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have. I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. As it is written,

‘The one who had much did not have too much,
and the one who had little did not have too little.’

All Glory to you O Lord

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered round him; and he was by the lake. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, 'My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.' So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, 'If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.' Immediately her haemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease.

Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' And his disciples said to him, 'You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, "Who touched me?"' He looked all round to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, 'Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.'

While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, 'Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?' But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, 'Do not fear, only believe.' He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, 'Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.' And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, 'Talitha cum', which means, 'Little girl, get up!' And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

The Eucharistic Prayer

The Lord is here

All His Spirit is with us.

Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give thanks and praise.

Living God we acclaim you, majestic in holiness, worthy of praise, worker of wonders. In the beginning you created the universe. You made the sun and stars above our heads, the earth beneath our feet. Your word brought forth the rocks and streams, the surging seas, the wild winds and the mild.

You fashioned life in all its myriad forms, and shaped from clay the wonder of the human frame.

You spoke your word to those whom you had chosen, in disobedience they turned from your commands.

You came yourself in Christ the word made flesh, but he was shunned, despised by all, forsaken in the darkness of the cross.

You made the tree of death the tree of life, the empty grave a sign of glorious hope. You raised your Son and brought him to your side again, where now he lives to pray on our behalf.

Therefore with all your people, and with all the company of heaven, we praise you in the angels' hymn

All Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of truth and love,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Send down your Holy Spirit on us and on these gifts of bread and wine, may they become for us the body and blood of your most dear son and that we may become for you His living body, loving and caring for the world until the dawning of the perfect day.

Blessed is Jesus the bread of life. On the night he was betrayed he took a loaf of bread and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said,

This is my body which is broken for you, do this in remembrance of me. In the same way he took the cup after supper saying

This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this as often as you drink it in remembrance of me.

Blessed is Jesus the bread of life

All Dying you destroyed death, rising you restored life
Come to us Lord Jesus

Be with us now, breathe your spirit upon us. Help us to grow in Christ, and be the breath of love in our being and becoming. Call us to Christ like living serving one another in our community and in the world.

All Amen

The Lord's Prayer

All Our Father, which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth,
As it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

The Distribution

Prayer and Blessing

Eternal God, comfort of the afflicted and healer of the broken, teach us the ways of gentleness and peace that all the world may acknowledge the kingdom of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen

Your eyes have seen God's love, open them to look for the glorious hope.

Your ears have heard His songs, open them afresh to hear His word

Your tongues have uttered His praise, guard them to speak the truth in love

And the blessing of God almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit rest upon you and all whom you love, both living and departed, now and always

All Amen

Go in the Peace of Christ

All Thanks be to God
